

Protect Your Sensitive Data

Identity-Centric Data Security, Privacy, and Governance

Where Data Security Meets Human Context

Protect people, not just files. Lightbeam centers security on identity by linking sensitive records to the people they represent, so you know who can access whose data and why. The Lightbeam Data Identity Graph powers DSPM, Access Governance, and Privacy Operations at petabyte scale. Teams use workflow-driven policies to reduce overexposure, streamline governance operations, and generate audit-ready reporting without slowing the business. Lightbeam helps enforce least privilege and enables defensible deletion across cloud, SaaS, and on-prem.

"We chose Lightbeam because it offered us granular control and unique insights into our sensitive data, including the ability to figure out the identities associated with sensitive data, something no other solution matched. Lightbeam's responsiveness and innovation were the primary reasons we selected Lightbeam over Varonis."

David Hanna IT Security, Veridian Credit Union
